

Announcements for November 6, 2009

- Today is the last day Maintenance Appreciation Week! Let's let the people who help keep our school in working order know how much we appreciate them!
- The Rouse High School Choir and Band have challenged the Vandegrift Choir and Band to see who can collect the most "Coats for Kids". Let's make a difference in our community and show those Vipers just how great the RAIDERS are! Bring your new or gently used coats by the choir room before Friday, November 20th
- Interested in auditioning for the Royals in December? Want to dance with the Royals for a day? Come to their "Royal for a Day" Dance Clinic on Saturday, November, 14th from 9 a.m.-2p.m. This is a great opportunity to see what you will need to know for auditions in December. Pick up a Registration form in the MPR from Mrs. McKee or ask a Royal for a registration form. Cost is $10.
- Good news!! Rouse High School has received an short extension for the Reflections Competition. If you're still interested in submitting a work of art, a personally choreographed dance, an original piece of literature or your own musical composition.....then you have until the end of next week to get your work turned in. Our NEW deadline is next Friday, November 13th. If you have questions, talk to Mrs.Price in the Co-op or Mrs.Dougharty in the art department. We have too much talent at Rouse to let this opportunity pass us by-- submit your work!
